

My Mother at Sixty Six

—Kamala Das

Points to Remember

- On her way back to Cochin, the poet saw her mother's face who was sitting beside her in the car.
- Her mother's face was colourless and lacklustre, like a corpse.
- The poet is in deep pain because of her mother's ageing, decaying health and fear of losing her.
- In order to divert her mind from such negative thoughts, she started looking outside.
- As the movement of the car makes the trees appear running, the young trees are described as sprinting.
- The face of poet's mother symbolises frailty, dullness, pessimism and inactivity whereas, merry children and young trees symbolise vigour, energy, zeal, optimism and joy.
- As late winter's moon loses its magnificence and beauty when it gets covered with fog, similarly poet's mother has lost her youthful look, vitality and charm.
- At the airport while parting from her mother she smiles and reassures her that all is well. Her words infuse optimism in her mother and herself both.
