Review of the Poems

1. Any Woman

The poem Any Woman is written by Katherine Tynan.

It celebrates both womanhood and motherhood.

Mother is the pillar and the keystone of a house.

Without a woman a family doesn't have existence .

She is the fire upon the hearth.

She is the light and the heat that warms the earth.

Children thrive in the warmth of her love.

She binds her children with strings of love.

It prevents them from scattering away.

A woman is an all rounder in a family.

Her careful touch reaches everywhere and everything in the house.

They are the walls that protect the house from all dangers.

She prays to God not to take her away till her children grow.

The poem reinforces the unconditional love of a mother.

The poet uses metaphors throughout the poem.

They make the theme of the poem effective.

2. Rice

Rice is a poem written by Chemmanam Chacko.

It is a satire on changing attitude of the Kerala farmers.

The poem has two parts.

The first part of the poem abounds with nostalgic sentiments.

The poet returns home from his distant workplace after a long gap.

He dreams of having a meal of 'athikira' rice.

He expects a paddy cultivation based reception.

He notices a sea change in the people of his village when he reaches there.

He finds a wide gap between expectation and reality.

He gets shocked to see the changes.

Paddy cultivation has given way to rubber plantation.

Farmers have turned to cash crops like rubber, arecanut, etc.

The whole village has changed.

The members of his family have become the part of the new culture.

Farmers have stopped rice farming as they easily get rations from the government.

He concludes the poem with a sharp tone of irony and satire.

He doubts whether he can get husk from the Centre to make toys with it.

Section IV

Important Themes:

Dears,

The units of our course book are based on certain themes. So we need to focus the important themes. You have to present your thoughts related to the themes in your write-ups and discourses. Let's analyse the important themes related to the 'focus area.'

1. Women Empowerment

Women empowerment is the need of the hour.

It is very important.

It is a must for the empowerment of the entire society.

Christine Lagarde speaks of the 3 Ls of women empowerment.

They are learning, labour and leadership.

Education is very important.

It is the foundation of all changes.

It gives women special status in society.

An educated woman can never be written off.

Still many women are denied higher education.

We should provide higher education to women.

It is our duty.

Every girl should be given proper education.

The government should make timely intervention in this regard.

Every woman should have a job.

It is a must in the modern world.

A job provides safety and security to a woman.

It gives them a special status in society.

Moreover, It helps to increase the per capita income of a nation.

There are good women leaders in the world.

Women leaders can make good decisions.

They can also showcase their skills and talents.

We are doing a lot towards women empowerment.

Still we have miles to go.

2. Challenges Faced by Women in the Modern World

Women face many challenges in the modern world.

They contribute less to the total economic growth of the world.

It is not their fault.

They are ready to contribute.

But, they are not given equal opportunities.

It is a serious issue.

As a consequence, many countries lag behind in per capita income.

Women are denied freedom and higher education.

Women education is a must for the maximum exploration of the human resources.

Women face many problems in their workplace.

They don't get equal pay for equal work.

They have low status and low security.

We should change this picture.

It is our duty.

Atrocities against women are increasing day by day.

Stern steps should be taken against the problems.

Let's work hard for a better society.

3.Role of Education in Women Empowerment

Education plays an important role in women empowerment.

It empowers women in modern society.

It is the foundation of all changes.

It gives women a special status in society.

An educated woman can never be written off.

Still many women are denied higher education.

We should provide higher education to women.

It is our duty.

Every girl should be given proper education.

The government should be very vigilant in this regard.

3.Importance of Mother

“God couldn't be present everywhere, so He created mothers”.

The words of Tagore underlines the importance of mothers.

Mother is the first friend, first teacher and the first guide of her children.

She is the thread that connects all the members of a family.

She is a symbol of love and sacrifice. Mother is a pillar of a family.

She is a great listener and encourages the children to do their best .

She inspires the children to become bold and confident.

She is the lovely shadow of God who protects her children from all the dangers.

So let's treat our mothers with care and affection.

4. Space of Indian woman in modern society.

Women play an important role in the society.

Indian women are devoted to their families.

Women have proved their potential in every sphere of life.

Women have started to step out of their comfort zones.

They manage their roles both at home and at work place.

Many of the women in our society are the breadwinners.

They are instrumental in nation building.

The status of women in society is slowly changing in recent years

Unfortunately , some women are still being exploited and humiliated in modern Indian society.

They are denied equal opportunities in many walks of life.

It is our duty to protect women.

Let's strive for a better society.

5. Honesty is the best Policy.

Honesty is the best policy.

It is important both in personal and public life.

It makes a person sincere and truthful.

An honest person will be sincere to his words and deeds.

There are many honest leaders in the world.

Gandhiji was one of them.

He held up the principles of truth and honesty.

That made the difference.

An honest person will be respected all over the world.

Honesty is so important that it should be a policy.

Robert Baldwin ,the character in The Hour of Truth ,was a symbol of honesty.

6. Corruption in Indian Society

Corruption is a threat to the development of our nation.

It spoils the true spirits of Indian democracy.

People lose their trust in democracy.

Corruption is the curse of our society.

It adversely affects the economic growth of a nation.

It is a criminal activity.

Crores were looted from the public fund by the leaders of different parties.

Poor people are the victims of corruption.

It prevents the development of a country.

Strict punishment should be given to save our country from corruption.

Strict laws should be enacted to punish those who accept bribes.

We should fight against it.

It is the duty of every responsible citizen.

4. Importance of being good listeners/The theme of human horegallu

We should be good listeners.

We should listen to the problems of others patiently.

We should do it with sympathy and without judgement.

It helps to refresh and relax others.

There are many people in society who are not heard and cared.

They want to ease their burdens by sharing them with others.

We should keep their words secret.

Being a good listener is a good quality.

It is a sort of social service.

We should be human horegallus like Ratna and the grandfather

5. Social Entrepreneur.

A social entrepreneur does business and contributes to the society.

Social Entrepreneurship combines social service and business.

Social entrepreneurs can help certain sections of the society.

They can provide service to the society.

But at the same time there will be some profit involved.

Social entrepreneurs become the change makers of the society.

They find solutions to the social, cultural and environmental problems.

They use a variety of resources for this.

They change the society for a better tomorrow.

Irfan Alam and Shaheen Mistri are social entrepreneurs.

The poets discuss a relevant theme.

Question.2

Prepare a review of the poem Paddy Fields and compare it with Rice by Chemmanam Chacko.

Paddy Fields

-Prathipa Nair

Walked through the paddy fields

Following a brown dragonfly

Standing scarecrows made of hay in old clothes and a hat

Row of women working in the fields

White herons feeding from the shallow water
Looks like white pearls on a green necklace
Children chasing a calf with a loud cry
Folk songs of farming from the village are heard far away
Some fields getting ready for the cultivation
Men ploughing fields with white oxen
An old man guiding a flock of quacking ducks to their way
Waiting for them to cross the lane like nursery kids
Running with a bunch of paddy in my hands
With a pleasant smile of the dragonfly following me !

The heart of a woman goes forth with the dawn
As a lone bird, soft winging, so restlessly on
A far o'er life's turrets and vales does it roam
In the wake of those echoes the heart calls home.
The heart of a woman falls back with the night,
And enters some alien cage in its plight,
And tries to forget it has dreamed of the stars
While it breaks, breaks, breaks on the sheltering bars.
