Silent, Strong Dad

(Karen K. Boyer)

He never looks for praises.

He's never one to boast.

He just goes on quietly working

For those he loves the most.

His dreams are seldom spoken.

His wants are very few,

And most of the time his worries

Will go unspoken, too.

He's there ...a firm foundation

Through all our storms of life,

A sturdy hand to hold onto

In times of stress and strife.

A true friend we can turn to

When times are good or bad.

One of our greatest blessings,

The man that we call Dad.

(Hints: sturdy – strong; strife – dispute)

Now, compare the poem with Any Woman by Katharine Tynan.

(Hints : theme, message, style, tone, poetic devices, etc.)
