Description

This is a beautiful garden. There are many plants and flowers in the garden. The flowers are of different colours. There is a big tree in the middle of the garden. A king is standing in the garden. The king is watching the plants and flowers.

The worry

Vidyadhara was the king of Gandhara. He was a just and wise king.

The king was fond of gardening. He spent a lot of time tending his garden, planting the finest plants, fruit trees, vegetables and crops.

His people were very happy. The king did not have children. As the king grew older, everyone got more and more worried. Who would take over the kingdom after him?
