SINGULAR - PLURAL

A SINGULAR NOUN

Names one person, place, thing etc.

A PLURAL NOUN

Names more than one person, one place, one thing etc.

Rules for making plural nouns depend on the spelling and pronunciation.

Usually 's' is added to a singular noun to make it plural.

Examples: dog - dogs, brother- brothers, car-cars

'es' is added for words ending in 'o', 'x', 'ch' or 'sh'

Examples: box - boxes, tomato - tomatoes, six – sixes potato – potatoes, bush – bushes, church – churches

There are a few nouns that form their plural by adding 'en' to the singular.

Examples: ox- oxen

Some nouns are used only in the plural.

Examples: scissors, tongs, spectacles

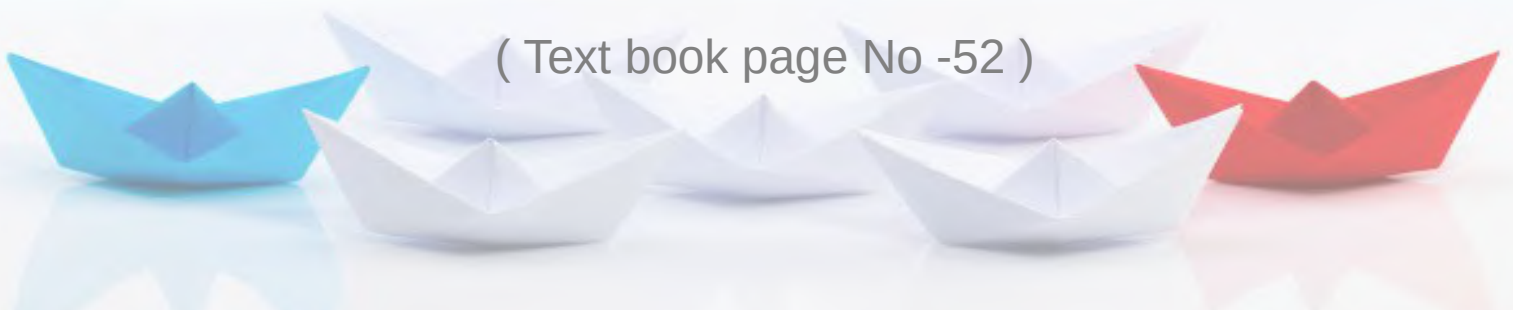

Some nouns have same form for both singular and plural nouns.

Examples: sheep - sheep, deer-deer, score- score
