

1. Answer the Following Questions:

1. Why does the speaker sing in wonder and amazement?

- The speaker sings in wonder and amazement because of the beauty and complexity of the universe, the sensations of life, and the profound experiences they encounter.

2. What do you think 'eternity's rushing tide' means?

- 'Eternity's rushing tide' likely symbolizes the continuous and unstoppable flow of time and existence that influences everything in the universe.

3. Pick out the worldly wonders described in the poem.

- The sky full of the sun and the stars
- The universe full of life
- The woodlands
- The blades of grass
- The fragrance of flowers

4. What 'maddened' the poet's mind?

- The fragrance of flowers maddened the poet's mind.

5. Why does the speaker prick his ears, open his eyes, and bare his heart?

- The speaker pricks his ears, opens his eyes, and bares his heart to fully experience and connect with the world around him, seeking deeper understanding and awareness.

6. What do you think the poet means by: 'In the midst of the known, I have sought the unknown'?

- This line means that the poet, while living in a familiar and understood world, continually seeks to discover new and unknown aspects of life and existence.

2. Find the Refrain in the Poem:

- The line "And in wonder and amazement I sing" is repeated in the poem.

3. Fill in What Fills the Speaker with Wonder and Amazement:

- The sky full of the sun and the stars
- The universe full of life
- Walking in the woodlands
- The blades of grass
- The fragrance of flowers

4. Proper Pairs from the Poem:

- a. flowers - fragrance
- b. grass - blades
- c. mind - maddened
- d. veins - racing
- e. swayed - world

5. Find Other Examples of Alliteration from the Poem:

- "sky" and "sun" and "stars"
- "rising" and "rushing"
- "walking" and "woodlands"
- "flowers" and "fragrance"
- "gifts" and "gladness"
- "maddened" and "mind"