

The little boy and the old man. Poem. The film pather panjali.

Micro Plan Name

The little boy and the old man. Poem.

The film pather panjali.

Activity Steps

In the story "Life with grandfather" there were so many difference between each characters especially grandfather and grandmother. Even in our family members one may vary from the other in every likes and dislikes.

But here there is a poem about a little boy and a grandfather who have many similarities.

The little boy and the old man

Let the learners read the poem silently.

Let them find out difficult words from the glossary.

Let them interpret the poem in their own ways.

Scaffolding questions

What is the first thing the boy tells to the grandfather?

What was grandfather's reply?

What did the little boy whisper?

What is the worst thing according to the child?

What was the grandfather's replay?

Loud reading

Let the learners sit in groups

Let them to read the poem aloud by one or two learners from each group.

revisiting the poem (Page 26).

- Let them to discuss the answers
- Write answers individually
- Refining in groups
- presentation

Activity 1 on page 26

Shows the video clipping on the theme we must take care of the old ones.

describe old age

Here we have seen an old woman and a young boy. Compare the physical features of them

Can you describe the old age?

Elicit responses

Teacher lists it on BB

Expected answers

- Grey hair
- poor eyesight
- shivering
- can't walk
- loss of teeth
- loss of hearing
- loss of memory etc.

Let them complete the activity.

Activity 2

Rewrite the poem in the form of a conversation

Let them sit in groups

Rewrite each line of the poem

in the form of conversation.

Resources

Ideas, Understanding, Values

Warmth in human relations