Activity I Reading Comprehension

Read the following story and answer the questions given below.

One Sunday afternoon, Mahesh, a ten year old boy, went out to play with his friends. He played until sunset. "It is too late. I have to go home," Mahesh said.

It was almost dark. He ran home. Mahesh lost his way. "Oh no! Where am I?" The surroundings were unfamiliar. There was no one around. Mahesh stood upset in the darkness.

He remembered what his grandfather had told him. "If you are lost, try climbing a tree to see where you are."

Soon he found a tall tree. He quickly climbed up and looked around. He noticed a small light flickering at a distance.

Climbing down, he hurried towards the light. It was a little shop.

"What do you want?" the shopkeeper asked.

"I lost my way. I need to call my dad," Mahesh replied in a trembling voice.

"Here's the phone," said the shopkeeper.

"Thank you uncle," said Mahesh.

Mahesh called his father and told the matter.

Then he waited there for his father's arrival.
