(1) Read the following passage and answer the questions given below.

Riya is a twelve year old girl studying in class VII. She has long curly hair and a pleasant face. She loves to draw and paint. 'Today is the art competition', she thought while getting ready for school. She reached school early. She kept her colour pencils ready and arranged everything on the table.

Her friend Asha came in and asked, "Riya, why are you here so early?"

Riya smiled and said, "I like to sit quietly for sometime before I start drawing. It helps me think better."

The art competition started. Everyone began drawing. Suddenly, water from Manu's water bottle fell over and his paper got wet. He looked very sad. Without any hesitation, Riya gave him a new paper.

"Thank you, Riya!" said Manu happily. Riya smiled. She was always kind and helpful.

Riya didn't get any prize in the competition. But she was not sad. She congratulated her friend who won the prize and said, "Next time, I will try to make a better drawing." She was happy in the success of others. She always tried to learn from her mistakes. Her teacher patted her and said, "Riya, you didn't win, still you are happy. You are a good example for others."
