

30 Awareness about business environment help in the growth and survival of business. Explain any four importance of knowing the changes in the business environment?

31. Planning provide a false sense of security in the mind of managers, but planning is the primary function. Comment the importance of planning function?

Answer any 2 each carry 8 score

32. In order to avoid trial and error methods in managing what are the principles suggested by F.W.Taylor? Explain?

33. Planning is a decision making process of what to do and how to do. What are the steps taken by managers in the preparation of a plan?

34. Efficiency of an organisation depends on how management function in there. What are the functions of management ? Explain

Name of School.....

First Term Examination Aug.2025

Part III Business Studies

Time: 21/2 hrs

Plus Two

Score: 80

Answer any 8 each carry 1 score

- 1 is the scientific management concept that means management and workers transform their thinking
2. Which management function aims to find out the right person for the right job at right time?
3. Which nature of management state that management has lots of theoretical knowledge and managers can creatively apply this knowledge to attain organisational objectives?
4. Rate of savings and investment of people relates to which dimension of business environment.
5. One of the features of principle of management states that the application of management principles are depend upon prevailing situations. Identify it.
6. What is the term used in management that denotes achieving goals in time?
7. Which general management principle emphasis kindliness and justice in the behaviour of managers towards workers?
8. Identify the concept which ensures free flow of goods and services across the world.
9. One of the characteristic of planning is that planning requires at all levels of management. Which characteristic referred here?

Answer any five each carry 2 score

10. Fayol suggested that in order to avoid delay in action shorter route has been provided in the line of communication. Explain the concerned management principle?

11. Management has the features of science but it is not a pure science. Why?

12. What do you mean by span of management? Explain its impact on organisation structure?

13. Which technique of scientific management emphasise the importance of setting standard time for completing a job? What is its objective?

14. Management has organisational, social, and personnel objectives. Write any four examples of social objectives of management?

15. Explain the management function which bridges the gap between where we are and where we want to go?

16. List out any two single use and standing plans.

Answer any five each carry 3 score

17. Customs and traditions are the social factors which affect the performance of business. What are the other social environmental factors that affect business?

18. Management is the process of getting things done through others. What are the features of the management process?

19. Draw a chart depicting the technique of functional foremanship.

20. Modern organisations are global organisations that have been managed in a global perspective. In this scenario what is the importance of the coordination function of management? Explain.

21. State three circumstances under which the divisional structure will prove an appropriate choice?

22. A business has made a decision to make all the payments by e transfers only. Explain the type of plan adopted by the business?

Answer any 4 each carry 4 score

23. Which level in the management hierarchy has a direct link between the organisation and its outside environment. What are the functions performed by management at this level?

24. Restricted entry is one of the features of a profession. Comment on the other features of management as a profession?

25. Match the following

A	B
a. Specialisation	a. Explotation of crops
b. One head and one plan of action	b. Scalar chain
c. Union is strength	c. Division of work
d. Self-motivation	d. Unity of direction
	e. Initiative

26. Organising involves a series of steps that need to be taken in order to achieve the desired goal. Explain the steps involved in the process of organising?

27. What is demotivation and what are the objectives behind its implementation?

Answer any 3 each carry 5 score

28. In management there are certain guidelines which influence the decision making and behaviour of managers. Explain the nature of these managerial guidelines?

29. Coordination is not a separate function of management; it is the essence of managerial functions. Explain the characteristics of coordination?