(1) Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage and answer the questions given below.

Arjun was a bright student, but he always complained about his life. He felt unhappy whenever he faced difficulties. He often compared himself with others and thought that they were luckier than him.

One day, Arjun's teacher took the class to an old age home. There, he met many elderly people who had faced hardships in life. Yet, they smiled, shared their experiences and remained hopeful. One elderly man told Arjun, "Life becomes better when we are happy with what we have, instead of worrying about what we don't have."

These words made Arjun think deeply. He realised that he had been focusing only on his problems. From that day onwards, he started looking at life positively. He became more grateful, worked harder and helped others whenever possible. Gradually, he became happier and more confident.
