

Class 6 First Term Examination 2026– Answer Key

ENGLISH

Activity 1: Reading Comprehension

- a) C. The City Tree
- b) Because they are touching and full of emotions.
- c) Peace
- d) Jun Atsushi Iwamatsu
- e) A. Both (i) and (ii) are correct.

Activity 2: Chat (Choose 2A or 2B)

2(A) Kunhichirutha & Ms. Hopkins

- Kunhichirutha: Hi, Miss! I am Kunhichirutha.
- Ms. Hopkins: Hello dear! Why do you look so sad?
- Kunhichirutha: My classmates can't pronounce my name and make fun of me.
- Ms. Hopkins: Don't worry, your name is beautiful. I will teach them how to say it.
- Kunhichirutha: Thank you so much, Miss!

(OR)

2(B) Mr. Isobe & Ms. Liz

- Mr. Isobe: Hi Liz, how are you?
- Ms. Liz: I'm good, Isobe! How is your new class?
- Mr. Isobe: Wonderful! A student named Chibi is very talented.
- Ms. Liz: Really? What can he do?
- Mr. Isobe: He draws well, knows wild plants, and imitates crow calls perfectly!

Activity 3: Email

To: sarahpirtle@gmail.com

Subject: Letter of appreciation

Dear Sarah Pirtle,

I really love your song 'The Colours of the Earth'. It taught us that every person is unique and special. Thank you for sharing such a beautiful message about diversity and unity.

With love,

A 6th Grade Student

Activity 4: Live Report (Choose 4A or 4B)

4(A) Football World Cup Celebration

The school ground is decorated with flags. Students and teachers are standing in rows, with our team in front. The school band welcomes the chief guest. After the Headmaster's speech, the chief guest kicks off the ball to huge cheers!

(OR)

4(B) Switching-on Ceremony of William's Windmill

A big crowd has gathered near William's windmill as night falls. The chief guest arrives and William explains his invention. He turns the switch on, the bulb glows, and all villagers cheer and clap happily!

Activity 5: Picture Story

The Football Boots

Raju was sad because his shoes were torn and he could not play football. A kind man saw him and gave him his son's old boots. Raju wore them, played with full energy, and scored the winning goal for his team. He happily held the trophy and thanked the kind man.

Activity 6: Editing

- (a) She → He
- (c) in → from
- (d) gush → gushed

- (e) fields thirsty → thirsty fields

Correct sentence: William was very proud of his achievement. He saw the machine drawing cool water from the ground. The water gushed through the thirsty fields.

www.educationobserver.com